MARVEL UNIVERSE MARK'S REMARKS

We've got five books on the docket to spotlight this week so I've got to keep my ramblings brief. This summer is going to prove to be a very exciting time for Marvel in general and my mainstream super hero line in specific. July is the month where Marvel makes the big switcheroo to its new exclusive direct sales distributor, Heroes World. Having an exclusive distributor will enable Marvel to service its many fine retailers better, and that will benefit you, the customer, in terms of better advance information about what we're doing and greater availability of our books, among various other things.

July is also when we begin our revitalization of the AVENGERS - FORCE WORKS family of titles, starting with a special edition called AVENGERS: THE CROSSING, on sale the last week in July. We had a conference last February where eleven of the most creative minds in comics brainstormed about how to make the Avengers family more of a must-read experience for every comics fan, and we think we've come up with something good. You'll be able to see for yourself shortly.

Got to run. See you next week.
